A close-up photograph of a manuscript page. The page features a prominent blue-inked decorative border along the right edge. Handwritten text in a cursive script is visible, though partially obscured by a vertical strip of paper or tape on the left side. The text appears to be in a historical or religious context, possibly related to the 'Liber Primus' mentioned in the caption. The overall color of the page is a light, aged yellow.
